

LONDON POLICE PRACTICE GRAFT

British People Excited Over Recent Disclosures.

CHEAPER THAN IN AMERICA

Inspector Was Satisfied With $5 a Week "Hush Money" From a Bookmaker.

LONDON, April 4.—British faith in the superiority of the incorruptible British "cops" over the venal American "cops" has been rudely shaken by the disclosures in the trial this week of a suit for slander brought by former Inspector McCarthy against David Curtis, a bookmaker.

The evidence showed that it is no uncommon thing for gamblers here to be blackmailed by the police, but it was also made plain that "protection" costs much less than it does on the other side of the Atlantic. The English police official, when he is dishonest, is a much cheaper man than his American brother.

A Desirable Position.
McCarthy has been twenty-two years on the force, being promoted until he became head of the detective department of the F division. That is one of the most sought-for positions on the force, because of its opportunities for "tips" for looking after weddings.

McCarthy, after a year's service in that place, was summarily dismissed for taking bribes from gamblers and bookmakers. It had been found that no convictions could be obtained against the gamblers in his bailiwick, and Scotland Yard had become suspicious. A raid brought evidence that pushed McCarthy from office.

The inspector brought suit for slander against Curtis, who had lodged a complaint against him. The jury acquitted the bookmaker. And now the public is asking how many McCarthy's remain on the force? Gambling houses flourish in London, and bookmakers abound. The inference is plain.

Bribery Is Common.
On the witness stand McCarthy said bribery was common, but swore he had never taken a half penny. Curtis said McCarthy's price for protection averaged a "quid" ($5) a week. Fancy an American inspector of police condescending to shut his eyes for such a paltry sum?

In three months Curtis paid McCarthy $50. Then McCarthy threw out strong hints of an intention to raise his price. But the worst of it was he failed to "make good." Some of Curtis' confederates were arrested. Then Curtis told two of McCarthy's sergeants what the "old man" had got out of him. Apparently McCarthy had failed to divide with them, which was a mistake. Anyhow, they carried the story to headquarters, and McCarthy's downfall followed.

OBLATE FATHERS MAKE PREPARATIONS TO BUILD

Official confirmation of the statement, made in The Times about two weeks ago, to the effect that the Oblate Fathers have bought fifteen acres of land near the Catholic University on which to locate a permanent home for the order has come from the provincial of the order, the Very Rev. M. F. Fallon, of Buffalo.

He declares that the removal of the order from New York to the District of Columbia is in the line of a closer affiliation of the great Catholic educational orders with the university. Father Fallon says only one of three proposed buildings will be undertaken now, and that one will be the university studies for the use of advanced theological students. Plans for this edifice are now in course of preparation.

CURATE REVERGES BOWELS OF CELLBACY

High Episcopal Priest Resigns to Wed.

EXTREME ANGLICAN CHURCH

Has a Confessional—Clergyman Will Marry Miss Emily Alcock of Baltimore.

BALTIMORE, April 4.—The congregation of the fashionable Mount Calvary Episcopal Church is surprised and not a little shocked to learn that the Rev. George Barker, who has been in his resignation as curate, with the information that he has renounced the obligation of celibacy and intends to marry Miss Emily Alcock, formerly of this city.

The Rev. Mr. Barker is now in Italy. Mount Calvary Church is one of the extremely "high" churches in the South. It has a confessional and observes all the forms of the extreme Anglican, which includes the celibacy of its priests.

The curate, who has abandoned this view, was one of the most rigid and uncompromising opponents of marriage among priests. He was regarded as a confirmed celibate and there was not the remotest idea when he went abroad that he had experienced a change of heart.

Miss Alcock had been a member of Mount Calvary since childhood and took deep interest in church work. Her father, who was a well-known citizen of Baltimore, died last fall.

For several years he lived in a beautiful villa near Florence, Italy, and about a year ago, on a visit to Baltimore, his daughter met the young clergyman and a friendship was formed which ripened rapidly into love.

MRS. HALL'S MIRACLE.
Experiences Similar to This Have Occasioned Considerable Comment in Washington.

Few women are better known in Lockport, N. Y., than Mrs. Patti D. Hall, as she belongs to one of the best families and has a large circle of friends and acquaintances. In a recent interview Mrs. Hall said:

"The experience I have been through in the last two years seems like a miracle. I was so badly off that life seemed almost unendurable, and my deafness increased so that I could scarcely hear anything. The suffocation in my chest and the indigestion caused by my catarrh, produced very severe suffering. I had five different physicians, bought everything that anybody recommended to me, but finally gave up in despair."

"One day my neighbor asked me if I had ever tried Hyomel. I began the treatment, and can thankfully testify that Hyomel does cure this terrible disease. Since using it my hearing is greatly improved, and the only time I have any catarrhal trouble is when I take cold. I then use Hyomel, and after a few days I am cured, and my hearing gets instant relief. My friends and acquaintances marvel at the change in my health and hearing."

Hyomel has made many cures of catarrh, and in connection with Hyomel balm, of catarrhal deafness, in Washington. Similar experiences to that of Mrs. Hall have created a large sale for Hyomel with Henry Evans, 92-31 F street northwest.

The complete outfit, including the inhaler, costs but $1, while extra bottles are but 50 cents. Ask Henry Evans to show you the strong guarantee under which he sells Hyomel.
